

INVITATION NORTHWEST PA REGION - WATERSHED WORKSHOP

Thursday, May 19, 2022
9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Erie National Wildlife Refuge
11296 Wood Duck Ln., Guys Mills, PA 16327

Please join the Pennsylvania Organization for Watersheds and Rivers (POWR) and the Pennsylvania Environmental Council (PEC) for a gathering of watershed group leaders to share resource information, learn techniques to help build capacity, and network with other groups in the Northeast Pennsylvania region. Building on the success of previous workshops and statewide conferences, POWR and PEC are convening meetings across the state to identify needs and provide organizational capacity and technical resource tools. Invited guests include staff from River Network, the Allegheny WINS Coalition, County Conservation Districts Watershed Specialists, and regional and local environmental organizations with watershed-focused programs and resources.

Who Should Attend? Watershed and environmental organization staff, board members, volunteers, and interested citizens.
